Introduction

Welcome to “The Ten Commandments of God for Kids”

The Ten Commandments are special rules given by God to guide us in living good and meaningful lives.

In the Bible, in the book of Exodus 20:1-17, God gave these commandments to Moses on Mount Sinai to help people know how to love God and others.

In today's world, children are missing out on the ten commandments of God which makes them live anyhow they like.

Jesus said to the people “I have not come to do away with the commandments but to make it come to reality. John

1

You Shall Worship Only God

Explanation

The first commandment tells us that we should always love and respect God above everything else.

That means not letting anything like toys, games, or even worries come before your friendship with God.

Bible Verse

"You shall have no other gods before me." -Exodus 20:3

2

You Shall Not Worship Idols

Explanation

The second commandment tells us not to make idols or worship things like statues or objects.

You should focus on your relationship with God and not on things that are not real; like toys, phones, video games and many more.

Bible Verse

"You shall not make for yourself an idol."-Exodus 20:4-5

3

Respect God's Name

Explanation

The third commandment reminds us to use God's name with respect. You should not say God's name in a mean, cursing or joking way.

You should speak God's name with reverence and honor, showing your love and respect for Him.

Bible Verse

"You shall not misuse the name of the Lord your God." -Exodus 20:7

4

Keep then Sabbath Day Holy

Explanation

The fourth commandment tells us to take a break on the Sabbath day to rest and spend time thinking about God.

It's a special day to relax, worship God, spend time with family, and remember God's love for us.

Bible Verse

"Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy." -Exodus 20:8-11

5

Honour Your Parents

Explanation

The fifth commandment is all about respecting and honoring our parents. Your parents take good care of you and love you, so it's important you listen to them, follow their rules, and show them love and appreciation.

Bible Verse

"Honor your father and your mother." -Exodus 20:12

6

You Shall Not Harm Anyone

Explanation

The sixth commandment teaches us to never harm or hurt anyone because they are created by God almighty.

Life is precious, and you should treat others with kindness, love, and respect, valuing the gift of life that God has given

US.

Bible Verse

"You shall not murder."
- Exodus 20:13

7

Be Faithful to Your Husband or Wife

Explanation

The seventh commandment reminds us to be faithful and honest in our relationships as husband and wife. You should also be loyal, trustworthy, and truthful in our commitments to others.

Bible Verse

"You shall not commit adultery."-
Exodus 20:14

8

Do Not Steal From Others

Explanation

The eighth commandment is about respecting other people's belongings and not taking things that don't belong to us. You should always ask for permission and do not take what does not belong to you.

Bible Verse

"You shall not steal."- Exodus 20:15

9

Always Speak the Truth

Explanation

The ninth commandment teaches us to always tell the truth and not to lie about others.

Being honest and truthful in our words and actions helps build trust, integrity and respect in your relationships with people.

Bible Verse

"You shall not give false testimony against your neighbor."

- Exodus 20:16

10

Be Happy with What You Have

Explanation

The tenth rule reminds us to be content with what we have and not to be jealous of what others have.

Being grateful and appreciating what we have brings happiness.

Bible Verse

"You shall not covet... anything that belongs to your neighbor."

- Exodus 20:17
